KAMANDI

THE LAST BOY ON EARTH!

APPROVED BY THE COMICS CODE AUTHORITY

CHARLES ATLAS, World's No. 1 Body Builder, says:

Don't Be Half A Man!

Let ME SHOW How I Can Make You a Real HE-MAN From Head to Toe — in Just 15 Minutes a Day!

Take a good honest look at yourself! Are you proud of your body — or are you satisfied to go through life being just "half the man" you could be? No matter how ashamed you are of your present physical condition — or how old or young you are — the "sleeping" muscles already present in your body can turn you into a real HE-MAN! Believe me, I know — because I was once a skinny, scrawny 97-pound half-alive weakling! People used to laugh at my build and make fun of me. I was ashamed to strip for sports or the beach . . . shy of girls . . . afraid of healthy competition.

WIN THIS VALUABLE TROPHY

HOW I CHANGED FROM A "MOUSE" TO A MAN!

One day, I discovered a secret that changed me from a timid, frightened scarecrow into "The World's Most Perfectly Developed Man" — a "magic formula" that can help turn you, too, into a marvellous physical specimen . . . a real HE-MAN from head to toe . . . a man who STANDS OUT in any crowd! What's my secret? "DYNAMIC-TENSION" — the natural method! No theory. No gadgets or contraptions. You just do as I did. Simply take the "sleeping" muscles already present inside your own body — build them up — use them every day in walking, bending over, reaching, even sitting! Almost before you know it, you're covered with a brand-new suit of beautiful, rock-hard SOLID MUSCLE!

MY SECRET BUILDS MUSCLES FAST!

Just 15 minutes each day in the privacy of your room is all it takes to make your chest and shoulder muscles swell so big they almost split your coat seams . . . turn your fists into sledge-hammers . . . build mighty legs that never tire! Mail coupon today for my famous book showing how "Dynamic-Tension" can give you a Body by Atlas. Charles Atlas, Dept. 81J 115 E. 23 St., New York, N. Y. 10010.

5 FREE GIFTS

If you act now, in addition to my complete course, you will also get these five valuable outline courses.

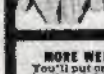
BROAD SHOULDERS? "Dynamic-Tension" will broaden your shoulders. You'll see and feel the difference in 7 DAYS!



MORE WEIGHT? You'll put on pounds in the right places. "Dynamic-Tension" rebuilds you inside and out.

THE SHRIEKING BATS SUDDENLY DISPERSE AS A STRANGE AIRBORNE MACHINE ARROWS IN AMONG THEM!
THE BATS WERE FRIGHTENED SILLY BY THAT MACHINE ... IT CAME FROM THAT BIG GLOBE ABOVE THAT CRATER!
THE MACHINE IS CALLED A LASERON! IT'S ONE OF MANY PROTECTIVE DEVICES MY PEOPLE CREATED TO CONTAIN THE CONSTANT ATTACKS BY THE BATS!

HAVING THESE BATS FOR NEIGHBORS WOULD KEEP ME CONSTANTLY JUMPY!
SKOK!
THE LASERON IS DRIVING THEM OFF!
IT'S CLEARING THE WAY FOR OUR LANDING!

AS THE LASERON PURSUES THE FLEEING BATS, BEN MOTIONS TOWARD THE GIANT EARTH-SPHERE...
THE DANGER'S PAST NOW.
WE'RE ALMOST ORBITING HOME.
KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE GREAT GLOBE!
IT SURE IS BIG!
IT'S LIKE YOU'RE APPROACHING AN ACTUAL PLANET!

WAIT!--- YOU SAID "WE'RE ALMOST ORBITING HOME!"--- YOU-YOU DON'T MEAN THAT'S...?
THAT'S TRACKING SITE!--- AT LEAST, ALL THAT'S LEFT OF THE ORIGINAL INSTALLATION...
IN FACT, THAT GLOBE IS NOT ONLY HOME, BUT, INSIDE, IT'S TOTALLY UNLIKE ANY PLACE ON EARTH!

IN MANY RESPECTS, KAMANDI, WE REALLY ARE APPROACHING ANOTHER PLANET! WE'RE COMING IN FOR "SPLASHDOWN" JUST LIKE OUR ASTRONAUT ANCESTORS!
BUT---THE GREAT GLOBE--- HAS IT BEEN HOVERING IN MID-AIR SINCE PRE-DISASTER DAYS?

THE TIME CAPSULE

By Steve Sherman

X-407

Dear Jack,

You have broken me loose from a 10-year silence. I can't resist telling you I've been reading comics that long without ever writing. KAMANDI #4 inspired me to take the plunge, but DEMON #6 and MR. MIRACLE #12 must be given some credit, too.

The cover of KAMANDI was great! The action really jumps out at the viewer in a way achieved by few. Your years in comics are paying off in a big way now. You've got the most dynamic figure style in graphics today. So many of the comic artists today specialize in thin "realistic" renditions of their figures, while you use a single stroke to supply equal anatomy and twice as much punch. The economy in your drawing is a quality much to be admired and naive readers shouldn't mistake it for easy ways out.

I wish you great success with KAMANDI. Its potential seems to lie in a broader age appeal without it losing any of the intelligence found in the trilogy. I'm glad to see it go monthly. Mike Royer's inks knock me out too!

David Mollett, Fairbanks, Alaska

With the kind of comments you write, Dave, you should write more often than every ten years. Jack, in fact, prefers to call himself a cartoonist rather than an illustrator. Fortunately, both styles of drawing have a place in comics.

* * * * *

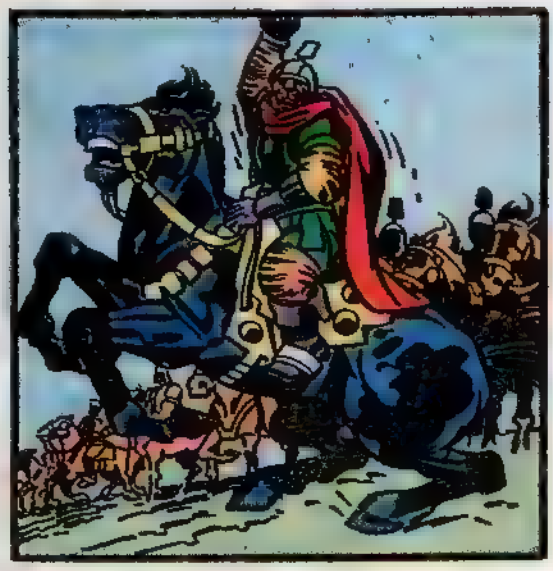
Dear Jack,

I don't believe you've done it!! You've ruined one of the most important facets concerning Kamandi and his world, mainly the time of the Great Disaster. In Issue #4, you show Kamandi reading a copy of DEMON #1. As any comic buyer knows, even if a supermarket carries comics, the books aren't on the stands for more than a couple of months. This means that the Disaster, if such a thing as described in your book were to happen, should have taken place already! I don't know about the other readers, but this spoils the story for me. We all knew that the earthquake (or whatever) took place. I, for one, didn't think that it took place in the far-flung future, but now I know when it happens! It becomes terribly hard to express the dismay at this revelation.

Henry Lipput
Upper Montclair, N.J.

We received quite a few letters similar to yours, Henry. It seems that Jack's attempt at injecting some humor into the story shocked almost as many people as it amused. But it's my job to explain these things, so how does this grab you? What Kamandi found was not a new copy of THE DEMON, but one that had been saved for some time in the back of Hobbs Store. We've all seen book stores that have a pile of old comics in a box. Ben Boxer was coming out of the supermarket, but Kamandi was rummaging around the book store. That copy of THE DEMON was already a collector's item when the Disaster struck.

* * * * *



Dear Mr. Kirby,

KAMANDI is great! I've waited a long time for somebody to do a mag like KAMANDI. Like all DC comics, the art is terrific. I'm up to issue four and I hang around the local book store every day waiting to grab a new issue.

The tigers charging on horseback are neat, but horses can sense an enemy by scent, and before the Disaster tigers were one of the large cats that would attack horses. They were therefore regarded as enemies, and while the tigers may now have human intelligence, they still possess that same old scent.

Jeffrey McHale
Throop, Pa.

Obviously, Jeff, when the tigers gained their human intelligence, they also found a huge storehouse of Brut cologne which they splash on to fool the horses! Hold it! Don't throw this comic down in disgust, I'm only kidding. In all probability, the horses have become accustomed to the tigers' scent by now and no longer regard them as enemies.

* * * * *

Dear Jack,

Now that KAMANDI is four issues old, I can conscientiously state with little fear of contradiction, that it is your best magazine ever. Frankly, "the last person on Earth" theme has always been a favorite of mine, and not since the early days of The Atomic Knights has a comic magazine pleased me more. Like the Knights' series, the depiction of devastated cities which your readers are familiar with creates a shocking and realistic atmosphere that such publications thrive on. It is my firm conviction that KAMANDI is better than the Knights ever were, by virtue of his more desperate plight and more frequent appearances (if nothing else).

With issues two, three and four there dawned (on me anyway) the element of humor. The first issue was a shocker and a thriller—there was nothing funny about it. Number two introduced card cheating rats, number three a gorilla city equipped with transit ropes (I did a triple-take on that one), and the latest issue had me smiling on page one. The comic gem of the issue had to be the gorilla lighting up a stick of TNT in his mouth as though it were a cigar. If the truth be known, it's your bold sense of humor that has made my favorite reading material KAMANDI and MR. MIRACLE.

It has occurred to me, though, that while tigermen, rat-men and ape-men are well represented in your magazine, their female counterparts are nowhere to be seen. Moreover I can't recall any beast-men babies or children. Could it be that the radiation which intellectualized the beast-men annihilated their mates?

Ferenc Solyomi
Chicago, Ill.

Nothing quite that drastic happened, Ferenc. Up to issue four, Kamandi had come in contact only with the warrior elements of the animal societies. With all that action going on, Jack had barely enough space to fit Kamandi in, let alone other animal-people. Tuftan was the first attempt at widening the scope, and, as you've seen by now, there definitely are beast-women and children.

* * * * *

Dear Mr. Kirby,

KAMANDI #4 was great except for one thing. The savages talk, and it didn't seem to bother the gorillas. In #1, the wolf was shocked when Kamandi spoke. If all of the humans speak, what was so unusual about Kamandi?

Jim Baylis
Richmond, Ca.

The difference is that Kamandi is capable of intelligent thought, Jim, while the other humans are only on the level of, for instance, parrots or parakeets who can talk, but cannot make up their own sentences. The gorillas probably ignore this kind of chatter, but Kamandi, in trying to communicate with them, was able to distinguish a few words.

* * * * *

More mail next issue. We welcome your comments here at THE TIME CAPSULE, P.O. BOX 336, NEWBURY PARK, CA. 91320, where the earth just keeps on shakin'!

THE SCORE-BOARDS DON'T TELL ALL!

There's	much	more than	just	the score!

WATCH FOR IT

When I dropped by the DC offices this afternoon, there was so much going on that I couldn't even find my desk! It's only February, but we're getting our summer line of comics ready and those are the ones that we take extra-special care with. To add to that, there's a move in the air. Around the time that you'll be reading this, DC is moving cross-town to a beautiful new office, and the whole office is literally crawling with architects and their blueprints and plans. And as those aforesaid blueprints have a lot to do with one of my favorite projects, ye old Inquiring Fanatic is going to go Behind The Scenes once more, to give you the latest news on. . .

THE DC APPRENTICE PROGRAM

What do blueprints have to do with our new apprenticeship program? Why, it's simple, my friends, I was taking a look at the plans for the office that the bullpenners are going to use.

As you may remember, at this year's July Comic Art Convention, here in New York City from July 4th to 8th, the various editors of DC Comics will be inspecting portfolios of young people who want to become writers and artists for the comics industry (for more details, see Behind The Scenes #1 or write: Comicon, NPP, 909 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10022). Those people who are selected will be employed as apprentices, and given the opportunity to study their crafts here in the office. Sol Harrison, the production manager and creator of the Apprentice Program, has already brought in two new people to the business this way—Allen Milgrom and Carl Gafford. Some good scripts have been submitted that are being worked on. Be sure to give your talent a chance.

Anyway, back to the blueprints. It's a studio office, all set up to help the apprentices serve as assistants to our top artists and writers. The new offices also are going to give our regular people more room to work in, so don't be surprised if they enjoy their new spacious rooms so much that they come up with a lot of new books and features.

For instance, Denny O'Neil has decided to revitalize WEIRD WORLDS! There's going to be a big surprise coming your way in the December issue, but it's a little too early to tell you about it. So I'll just tell you that there's a sneak preview of the new feature coming your way in the October issue, and I'll give you some background information on our hottest new strip in my next column. Denny's breathlessly waiting for his new office, and you can count on even more surprises from him when he gets there!

Practically every editor has a new project in mind. Some are new books that I've already told you about (like Julie Schwartz's Strange Sports Stories) and others are new titles that are still top secret (I can't wait to tell you about them, but I've got to hold off a little while.) and still others are new formats or ideas for long established mags.

Legion Of Super-Heroes fans will be glad to hear that Superboy's magazine is now "Superboy And The Legion Of Super-Heroes" in response to the great job that Cary Bates and Dave Cockrum have been doing on the strip and the fantastic fan mail that they get.

Joe Simon's still hard at work creating new ideas. His latest blockbuster is Champion Sports Stories, a companion mag to Strange Sports Stories. This mag's different though, its emphasis is on ordinary sports reporting, not the fantasy stories in Strange Sports. It'll be coming your way on July 28th. His classic mystery stories from the golden age of comics (done with the one and only Jack Kirby) are also going to be coming your way—in a new mag called Black Magic.

Of course, there's a lot happening with our other mags too. I noticed a lot of new things on our editors' desks, and I'd like to pass some of them on to you. So let's look at the latest. . .

HAPPENINGS

Comic book fans always look forward to the annual Justice League-Justice Society team-up in the summer issues of JLA. Last year, the Seven Soldiers Of Victory guest-starred. This year, editor Julie Schwartz and writer Len Wein have conspired to return the greatest heroes of the Quality comics line to action. They're your old favorites—heroes like The Ray, The Black Condor, Doll Man, Uncle Sam, The Human Bomb and The Phantom Lady. And they're all busy with a "Crisis On Earth-X". Watch for the first part of this story, on sale now.

Golden Age fans will want to get copies of Secret Origins #5 (out in August) reserved at your newsstand months in advance! Nelson Bridwell has decided to reprint the two-part origin of The Spectre in that issue, from the dawn of DC Comics. The issues of More Fun Comics that those stories appeared in now sell to collectors for over $200! That's a pretty good buy for 20c!

The Phantom Stranger gets a new look soon, courtesy of a new writer who is an old pro—Arnold Drake, the man who created The Doom Patrol. And The Spawn Of Frankenstein is being taken over by one of our top weird writers (in more than one sense of the word), Steve Skeates.

On the personal side of things, Sol Harrison's been making mysterious trips to a small town in Illinois recently. Get ready for the inside story on Metropolis in my next Behind The Scenes column.

Back to the July Convention for a moment. I thought you'd like to know that besides the future of DC, our past and present will be well represented. Bob Kane, the artist who helped create The Batman in the forties will be a guest of honor (our past lives!) and C.C. Beck, the artist behind Shazam! will be there representing our present. Not to mention the dozens of other DC people who'll be attending.

There's much, much more happening here, so stick with us. It's going to be a long summer, and we've got a lot of things coming just for you!

"I would just like to tell you that I have lost 10 lbs. of fat in just one week by following your great system. The fat is melting away, while the muscles are bulging through (it's amazing). I am truly amazed at my muscular definition."
D. Easthon

"I finally lost my beer belly. Knocked 8" off my waist. It was easy following your course. Those muscles are bulging all over. I'm now twice as strong and my endurance has increased tremendously. Many thanks for what you have done to me.

Getting a Daisy B·B Gun is like getting a good grade.

You have to work for it.

We want every boy to enjoy the thrill of owning a Daisy. But we want him to be ready.

You see, a Daisy is a gun. It's not a toy.

You have to be ready to learn marksmanship and proper gun handling. It's a big responsibility.

What kind of boy is ready for his Daisy?

You can tell by the way he handles other things. Like schoolwork, and jobs around the house. He knows how to take serious things seriously.

He knows a gun is no laughing matter. And when he gets his Daisy, he grows up a little more. Because nothing teaches marksmanship and proper gun handling like a Daisy B·B Gun.

If you think you're that kind of boy, talk it over with your parents. Tell them you understand the responsibility of gun ownership, and are ready to practice it.

When you're ready to learn the lessons a Daisy can teach, we'll have a Daisy ready for you.

Send for "The Air Rifle Marksman." Mail your name, address, and 25c to Daisy, P.O. Box 220, Rogers, Arkansas. 72756.
